Parties arrived from Salt River, this county, report that stream as being higher, a few days ago, than ever before in their recollection. Arnold McLane, a few days ago, sustained a serious fracture of the femoral bone of the left leg, three or four inches below the hip joint. It was caused by the seemingly insignificant accident of stepping on a loose stone which rolled under Mr. McLane's foot and caused him to fall, with the unfortunate result above stated. Fears were entertained for a time that it might become necessary to amputate the limb, but Mr. McLane's condition has since improved, and he will probably regain the full use of the injured member.

James Clark, for whom a warrant issued from a justice's court in Casa Grande, was taken in by a deputy sheriff of Gila county, who being notified by the sheriff of Pinal county to turn him loose upon a promise given that he would return to Florence, Clark promised, and mounted the buckboard for that place, but switched off at the outskirts of Globe, for foot and walker's line, and after footing it for six miles he camped with a freighter until the following morning when he availed himself of the passing buckboard going east, via San Carlos, to Fort Thomas. O'Neil of Graham county was notified that Mr. Clark was wanted in Florence and as there is no more lively "Jack Ketch" in Arizona, it is fair to presume that Clark is again in lock.

Choice candies, pure maple sugar, dates, pop corn and chewing gum, for sale at the Post Office Store.

The blandishment of love and the light that shone from Miss Grace Westall's eyes was Frank A. Bonnard's heart's undoing. They loved both wisely and well and finding hymen's torch intensified, they responded to cupid's importunity to name a day when their fealty to one another should be consummated. They inconspicuously answered Sunday, the 21st, in Globe, at Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamill's residence. Cupid pronouncing his work accomplished, unstrung his bow and quivered his arrow, and immediately notified the Rev. N. F. Norton that his services would be required to unite the loving pair by a silken cord. All parties being on time, happiness was rendered complete.

Mr. G. L. Faurete, Niles, Michigan, states that while engaged in business in Indiana, he handled a full line of Chamberlain's medicines, and that his sales on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy were very large. The Remedy, he said, gave first class satisfaction to his patrons, also, that he always used it exclusively in his own family whenever required and with the most gratifying results. Let anyone troubled with a severe cough or cold give it an honest trial and they will soon become convinced of its excellence. It possesses qualities peculiar to itself, which makes it far superior to any other for acute throat and lung diseases, such as cough, colds, whooping and influenza. For sale by H. C. Hitchcock.

James R. Hazard, formerly a resident of Gila county, now of National City, San Diego county, California, unexpectedly arrived in Globe by stage, Monday evening, and was warmly welcomed by numerous friends. He reports his family well and greatly pleased with their new home.

THE BUFFALO WISE.

Dr. A. Trippel arrived on Wednesday evening, on business connected with the Buffalo copper mine. From him we learn that the intention of the owners of that property is to prospect the mine and if developments justify it, enlarge operations and begin smelting. Work in the mine is to commence at once with a force of ten or twelve men. Persons best qualified to express an opinion believe that the Buffalo is one of the very best copper properties in Globe District or, for that matter, in Arizona, and a time, under wise management, will become a steady producer.

Dr. Trippel's attention, for the next few months at least, will be chiefly occupied in directing operations at the Arivaipa mines, four miles north of Dunlap, Graham county, recently purchased by Mr. Goddard of New York, and to be operated by the Arivaipa Mining Company. The claims, thirty-two in number, are considered promising prospects. The ores are argenteiferous and the deposits very large. A great deal of preliminary work must be done, such as constructing roads, erecting buildings and providing the necessary equipment of machinery, tools, etc., before mining is actually begun, which, however, will not be later than a month hence. Dr. Trippel, after personal observation and from information obtained from well posted mining men encountered in his travels, expresses the opinion that Globe is the most promising copper camp in Arizona.

Fresh nuts—almonds, walnuts, filberts, pecans, peanuts and pinons—at the Post Office Store.

A serious accident occurred in the Globe mine, on Thursday, to Benjamin F. Pascoe who was standing on a staging about five feet from the bottom of the drift, detaching ore overhead, when a plank broke, precipitating him from his elevated position, and in the fall a sharp instrument (a mining parlane a scraper) entered his person over the collar bone on the right side and ranging obliquely upwards, in front of the windpipe and coming out on the left side of the neck, midway between the windpipe and spinal column. Ben. certainly was most fortunate in escaping sudden death. He, however, notwithstanding the terrible infliction, is in a fair way soon to be himself again. The fear of blood poisoning, resulting from copper on the scraper, is dispelled and his recovery is regarded as assured.

New stock gent's furnishing goods, at G. S. VAN WAGENEN'S.

In a letter to the manufacturers Mr. D. W. Morris, druggist, Emporia, Kansas, says: "In reading your enclosed order for one gross of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, allow me to say that without any exception, it is the best selling goods in the market. I have sold a great amount of it during the past year to citizens of this place and have the first complaint to hear. It is the best article to use for croup I have ever sold, being pleasant to take, which is an important item when children have to take medicine." For sale by H. C. Hitchcock.

Painful Boils.

"About three years ago I was troubled with poison in my blood, very irritating and painful boils breaking out all over my body. For two years I suffered with them, trying all sorts of remedies, and doctor's prescriptions without avail. Becoming disgusted with doctors, and medicines I had used up to this time, I concluded to try S. S. S. and the result was far beyond my expectations. A few bottles left me in better health than I had been since childhood. I consider S. S. S. the only medicine that will thoroughly purify poisoned blood."

T. K. MAYFIELD, Horse Cave, Ky.

A Valuable Tonic.

I have used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) with good results. As a tonic, it is valuable; as a blood purifier, it is reliable. REV. J. H. JEFFERSON, Winston, N. C.

Keep it as a Family Medicine.

Mr. S. J. Bradley, writes from Harrison, Ga., under date of September 22d, 1889, Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) has been freely used by my family with the best and happiest results. A half dozen bottles entirely relieved my sister of a severe case of scrofula. My wife has frequently found her blood purified and her health improved by S. S. S. I also had a scrofulous affection that has been entirely cured by taking a few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.)

The confirmation by the Senate of Judge Kibbey, an appointee for the Second Judicial District, of H. R. Jeffords as U. S. District Attorney, and R. H. Paul as U. S. Marshal, is commendable, and without doubt, outside of radical circles of political opponents, gives the utmost satisfaction.

A Florence telegram from Sheriff Fryer notified Sheriff Ryan, of this county, that James Clark is again under arrest at Thomas, and that an officer had been sent to return him to Pinal county.

It is reported that seven hundred San Carlos Indians declined to go to the Agency yesterday and draw rations, alleging as a reason that the flour and sugar gave them the gripe. A number are afflicted, but no deaths are reported to have occurred.

THE MURDER OF JUDGE MCCLANES AND HIS WIFE BY CHIRICAHUA.

Mr. S. L. Sanders, writing from the Pioneer mining district to the Florence Enterprise, under date of February 18th, says: "I notice in your last issue the report of a meeting of the Arizona Pioneers in which they adopted resolutions strongly protesting against Gen. Crook's policy in dealing with Apache Indians. If it be true that Gen. Crook vouches for their good behavior, I say God help Arizona and New Mexico if the headish Chiricahuas should be removed to a place near their former hunting grounds for human beings."

I was living in New Mexico at the time Chitto and Dutchy made their bloody raid up the Gila river by Clifton and through the Mayflower mining district, killing seven men near Clifton and five in the Mayflower district. This was on the 26th day of March, 1883, and on March 27th, about ten o'clock, Judge McClellan, his wife and little son, Charley, had just passed through Thompson's canyon, out of the Burro mountains, and when about one mile out onto the open country on their way to Shakespear, as happy as larks—the Judge intending to leave his family at Shakespear while he went to Las Cruces to attend the U. S. court, then in session—the Judge and wife were killed and his son captured by these Indians.

I was then a deputy of Marshal A. L. Morrison, and had the opportunity to know the facts herein stated, and deny their inaccuracy. Two other men and their wives were witnesses to Chitto's deeds, no true report of which has ever appeared in print.

As I said, the Judge and his family had got fairly out of the canyon and upon the open plain. There were some walnut trees growing by the roadside, and hickberry and elder bushes. It was behind a cluster of these walnut trees, about twenty-five feet from the road on the right hand side as Judge McClellan was traveling, that this bloody Chitto and his band of 29 Indians lay in wait.

When the Judge and family were nearly opposite them the Indians fired and shot down the off-wheeler of the team and wounded the Judge. He ran about sixty yards before he fell. The red devil then gave a wild whoop and a rush, and Mrs. McClellan and her son were made captives. My blood boils even at this late day at the horrible scene that followed, and my pen cannot detail the vile conduct of these wretches human only in form. The person of this unfortunate lady was violated in the most brutal manner; her clothes were torn from her body which was torn and scratched most horribly. When her life was almost tortured out they beat the back of her head until her brains oozed out and then to exhibit still further proof of their inhumanity, they broke off branches of the elder bushes and thrust them deep into her body, as many as they could.

The Judge's body was riddled with bullets and not a stitch of clothing was left upon his body. Little Charley was never heard of afterwards.

Has General Crook ever heard of this deed of his brave and dear friend Chitto? No! Not let him know the facts and likewise all those sentimentalists of the east who love the Indians.

[Dr. Alex. Trippel who was one of a party of sixteen or more citizens who went from the mining town of Pasquel to the scene of the murder, fourteen miles distant, and who viewed the bodies of Judge McClellan and wife and witnessed their removal, confirms the above account in all material points.—FLORENCE BELT.]

The breaking of the Walnut Grove dam resulted in washing out a large span of trestle of the Phoenix and Maricopa railway bridge over Salt river, which cannot be repaired in less than a week. Hence Phoenix mails are cut off.—Star.

The Citizen, of the 26th ult., contains a resume of Governor Lewis Wolley's statement before the Congressional Committee on Indian Affairs, relative to the removal of the Arizona Arabs—the Chiricahuas—from their present location in Alabama, to Fort Sil, where they could, if so desired, conveniently re-occupy the Territory in Arizona so recently fraught with their hellish deeds. The statement is a concise and truthful expose of the question now under consideration.

MRS. C. D. STUART.

Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 405 Hayes St., writes, "I have for years had a spell of indigestion and dyspepsia, and tried nearly everything. Finally I took a well known Sarsaparilla. It came promptly to break out on my face without helping me. I thought that my Sarsaparilla did not contain mineral, and might act differently. I took for it. The pimples disappeared immediately, and I had no more return of the old spell. Although the above was written a year ago, still, I must now attest the permanency of its effects. By the way, she takes an occasional dose to suppress a symptom of return, and that she has perfect control over her old troubles."

Four Humors!

The common lot is one of sorrow say—at least—the pessimists, they who look at the worst side. Certainly what would otherwise be a bright existence, is often shadowed by some ailment that overhangs it like a pall, obscuring perpetually the radiance that also would light the path. Such an ailment, and a very common one, is nervousness, or in other words, weakness of the nervous system, a condition only irremediable where inefficient or improper means are taken to relieve it. The concurrent experience of nervous people who have persistently used Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, that it cures entirely superfluousness of the nerves, as well as diseases—so called—which are invited and sustained by their chronic weakness. As the nerves gain strength from the great tonic the trouble disappears. Use the Bitters for malaria, rheumatism, biliousness and kidney troubles.

MEMORY

Intelligent Readers will notice that
